Capital Letters

Capital letters are an important part of written English. Capital letters are often called upper case letters. The verb to capitalize means to change the first letter of a word to a capital letter.

Capital letter / Upper Case: A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P Q R S T U V W X Y Z

Lower Case: a b c d e f g h i j k l m n o p q r s t u v w x y z

Capitalization rules:

- English sentences always begin with a capital letter
- The pronoun I is always capitalized
- Proper names are always capitalized. The name of a person, continent, country, city, building, or language
- Months and days always begin with a capital letter
- The name of a nationality or an ethnic group
- A significant religious term
- Roman numerals
- The title of a person (Mr., Mrs., Dr.)
- The name of a historical period
- The name of a holiday
- The first word, and each significant word, of a title (of a book, movie, article...)
- Brand names
- Acronyms, abbreviations of longer words or phrases (CIDA – Canada International Development Agency)

Look at the list of rules we use for capitalization. Using the transcripts from this week's stories try to find examples of these different rules being used. Answers are in the appendix.

Transcripts of Weekly news stories

	FEBRUARY 15 TH WEEKLY NEWS STORIES	TIME
Introduction	Hi, this is Carla Beynon. and you're listening to Learning English with CBC for February 15 th .	0:00
Story 1	Pope Benedict XVI announced Monday he will resign February 28 th . He says that he doesn't have the strength to do his job. Cardinals are expected to choose a new leader for the Catholic Church in mid-March. The 85-year-old pope dropped the bombshell in Latin during a meeting of Vatican cardinals. His resignation surprised even his closest advisers but the Pope had made clear earlier that he would step down if he became too old or weak to carry on. The last pope to resign was Pope Gregory XII, who stepped down in 1415.	0:09
Story 2	There is a growing scandal across Europe because of a discovery that horsemeat was being sold as beef. On Tuesday, British authorities raided a slaughterhouse and a meat processing company thought to be selling horsemeat labeled as beef. This raid was the first time that horsemeat being sold as beef has been traced to suppliers in Britain. Millions of burgers and frozen meals have been recalled around Europe but it's not clear how horsemeat got into so many beef products. French authorities have said that Romanian butchers had disguised horsemeat as beef being sold in meals like lasagna and moussaka to consumers around Europe. Horsemeat is taboo in Britain and Ireland, but in France it is sold in specialty butcher shops.	0:52
Story 3	Calgarians are celebrating a big anniversary. It has been 25 years since the Olympics came to Calgary. On February 13, 1988 the Winter Games officially opened in the city. It was the first time the Olympics had ever been in Canada, and it was a big party! Canada won 5 medals over the 16 days of competition. The venues built for the games included Canada Olympic Park, the Olympic Oval, and the Saddledome. They are all still used today. The cost for the 1988 Olympics was $439 million. The cost of the Sochi 2014 Winter Olympic Games is expected to be $50 billion.	1:47
